Krankenhauspharmazie

Publisher Information

Brief description

The journal Krankenhauspharmazie (KPH) is published on monthly basis and is the official organ of the Bundesverband Deutscher Krankenhausapotheker (ADKA) e.V. Krankenhauspharmazie reflects the scientific and practical activities of a hospital pharmacist and reaches nearly all the hospital pharmacies as well as many pharmacies supplying hospitals in Germany, Austria and Switzerland. The journal includes articles on subjects from all fields of the clinical pharmacy, for example on new medicinal products of relevance for hospitals, on the manufacturing and analytics of medicinal products, on tasks of the pharmacist as consultant of physician and patient as well, as on the support of medical activities, the therapeutic safety of medicinal products, of pharmaceutical logistics as well as of pharmacoeconomics. Moreover, the journal includes lectures concerning important publications from international specialist literature, reports of international congresses and of advanced training courses. ADKA-Federation news also is an integral component of the Journal.
